Asthma involves inflammation that constricts muscles in the airways, causing attacks of wheezing and shortness of breath. A clear strategy on IP enforcement is crucial to avoid the losses that may be incurred by the existence of infringing goods in the market and the high costs involved in some IP disputes. Even if big bottoms make a comeback, the word that goes with them probably won't.