it is estimated that the total amount of methadone needed for this period is 1,724,990 liters with a concentration of $10 \times 10^9$ mg per ml, including 118,078 liters for the 2010-2013 period.

nevertheless, the movement to more effectively control offenders during community supervision gained considerable momentum throughout the 1980s.